Class

of 1999

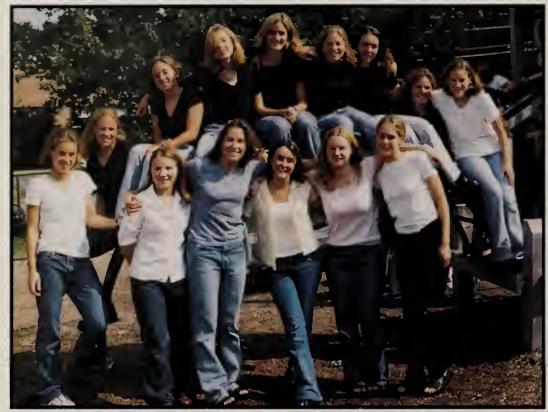

Dedicated to Mr. Rozzi

The North Andover High School class of 1999 proudly dedicates this year's edition of "The Knight" to our assistant principal, Richard M. Rozzi. Mr. Rozzi started at North Andover High in 1967 and will hopefully remain here for many years to come. For the past four years, we have gotten to know Mr. Rozzi as more than just a disciplinarian. He has become a supporter, a mentor, and most importantly, a friend. Mr. Rozzi has created a warm, laid-back atmosphere for the school in every way possible. The friendly "hellos" in the hallway, the big handshakes, and of course, that award-winning smile. Our memories of Mr. Rozzi and his genuinely caring personality will be remembered by the entire class of 1999. We all thank Mr. Rozzi for his efforts to make our high school years safe, enjoyable and filled with memorable times that will last us for many years ahead.

What advice would you give to incoming freshmen?

SENIORS

Have a blast because before you know it, it's the past.

- Gary Letourneau

Don't be overwhelmed and remember the years go by fast, so cherish them.

- Meg Jensen

Never forget that this school will give you some of the best memories of your life.

Palmer, Ryan Palms, Ry, Mavic boy, Flyin' Ryan. I made it! I survived North Andover High. It was hard avoiding all those cliques, and being pulled into the jock world. But I did it. I gained some popularity, while basking in my antisocialness. I made many friends, and little enemies. And most importantly, I never let the word, "wicked" enter my vocabulary. I succeeded in bringing a little bit of New Jersey to New England. (Skidfalidix, hey now, and of course phatty boombatty. Also cabbage night was brought to North Andover.) I will always remember Marty's Irish pride. Marty never failed to make me laugh. (goats!) He has a weird sense of humor. Nick was also funny when I could understand what the heck he was saying. Always freaking out in German class. Nick's daily ritual: go home, take off pants, cook some pork chops, and watch the USA daily double feature. Eddy Merkx was cool. Jess Hibbs, we had some good times. Jess Noone, I'll never forget Mr. Sanfords class. I'm still waiting for that picture. Oh yeah, can't leave out good old Mr. Rozzi. I always thought it was weird how the bad kids would always get off the hook, but the good kids were punished. It's a new type of discipline I guess. PEACE OUT!

IN RECOGNITION OF GARY LETOURNEAU

Gary Letourneau is a very "special" person. That is the opinion of all those who have been fortunate enough to know him. He always has a smile on his face and a cheery "Hello" for everyone he passes in the halls. At the high school, he has rightfully earned the nickname, "Mr. Mayor". By his demeanor, one would never believe all of the obstacles in life Gary has had to overcome. In middle school, Gary was diagnosed with bone cancer and throughout his four years at the high school, he has been plagued by complications. Still, he smiles! Even with extensive absences, Gary has worked very hard to succesfully keep up with his class. Gary is being recognized for his strength, his courage and his perseverance through the toughest of times. We applaud him for his ability to never let life get him down. Gary is an inspiration to us all. We wish him much health, success and happiness in the future and always.

AN ACCOMPLISHMENT WELL FOUGHT!!!

Your Most Embarrassing Moments

The first day I drove to school I left my lights on and killed my battery.

-Priscilla Rivera

Freshman year at the Thanksgiving game, I stood up to walk down the bleachers and fell and straddled the bench - everyone saw.

Mr. Kelly sang Irish songs to the whole track team on the way home from a meet.

Anne Lambert peed in a Dunkin Donuts cup on the bus during a field trip.

Lisa Waxman wore her shoes on the wrong feet.

Mike Demirdjian hit his head on a table playing volleyball and had to get three stitches.

John Minihan crawled down the hall with his pants around his ankles.

Trevor Mitchell hit Mrs. Kyte with a dodgeball.

Meghan McCann broke her arm in a powder puff game sophomore year.

Nick Montouri pulled a chair out from under Anne Lambert at lunch.

College was a dream not reality.

The fire alarm went off during our Freshmen Semi.

We thought twice about skipping class.

Kim Tronic fell in the middle of the dance floor at the Freshmen Semi.

We were freshmen.

Lisa Waxman almost hit a school bus.

Andy Minihan broke Cristal Perriello's car window at Harrison's.

Geoff Leonard got hit in the head by Brian Faye with an apple at lunch.

Going to Champs Grocery Store during the Spain and France trip in April of 1998.

There was something to do on the weekends.

Seniors had "Senior Privileges."

Boys had "cooties."

Adam Kalafarski broke the wall in Mr. McGowan's AP Geometry class sophomore year.

The dances were fun.

We had lockers that could just be pulled open.

There were no directed studies.

"Raving Reviews"

The newest sport at our school, the Scarlet Knight 's Lacrosse team, finished their first inaugural season with a perfect 11-0 J.V. record. Coach Peter Concannon reported that "the Knights were a team in every sense of the word." Captains Barrett Hyde and Ryan Connelly were leading scorers. Hard hitting defensemen, hustling midfielders, and solid goal tending, combined with a relentless attack, shut down opponents. The Knights enthusiasm, dedication and attempts at singing on the bus rides have stirred up raving reviews. In the Spring of 1999 they will compete in their first varsity season.

CONTENDING AGAIN

The 1998 soccer season was both exciting and successful. Led by captains Dave Saba and Matt Holland, the Knights finished the season 12-6-3 overall and 10-5-3 in the league. They capped off the season with a dominating win over powerful Masconomet, providing them with momentum to be in the state tournament. In the tournament, the Knights knocked off Revere in the first round, the #2 seed Danvers in overtime in the second, and lost a heartbreaker to Reading with only seconds remaining in the quarterfinal. Five members of the team were chosen Cape Ann League All-Stars, including, Dennis Toomey, Billy Palladino, Jimmy DiStefano, Dave Saba, and Matt Holland The Knights look forward to next year knowing that nine starters and fifteen lettermen are returning. Great season Knights! Best of luck next year!

BOUNCING TO VICTORY

The Scarlet Knights' boy's basketball team enjoyed another great season, finishing the regular season at 17-3 as Co-Champions of the Cape Ann League. The year was highlighted by wins over Andover in the Christmas Tourney semi-finals, and previously undefeated Lynnfield and Newburyport in the regular season. The number one seeded Knights lost a heartbreaker in the state tournament quarterfinals to North

Cambridge Catholic. This season the Knights were led by seniors Justin St. Hilaire, Tim Howlett, Jared Clough, Jeff Armano and Tim Carney. Juniors Paul Tanglis and Fran Morales made key contributions to the Knights' success. Jared Clough was named Cape Ann League MVP and Tim Howlett also made

T.A.C.K.L.E

Teens Acting To Care By Keeping Leadership Effective, a collaboration between NAYS and NAPD, was started in 1995 by eight dedicated members of NAHS, and has now considerably grown in size. The group's main focus has been the "Preservation of Diversity" in the school and community, and open minded views expressed through leadership in the community's youth. Every year the group bakes pies for the People's Pantry, buy gifts for the Youth Services Holiday Gift Drive, and organize an assembly in celebration of DIVERSITY. SEMI-FORMAL

The Freshman/Sophomore Semi-Formal was held on the Spirit of Boston April 4, 1998. Taking off from Boston Harbor, the weather was great and everyone had a great time. From taking pictures, to having a buffet dinner, this was definitely a Knight to remember!

Brendan Daley and Katie Petralia share a moment on the dance floor!

Carolyn Zaikowski is one lucky girl to have Art Middleton and Scott Nicholson at her side!

Haley Kratz and Jillian Foley are all smiles as they pose for Sunny!

156 A wild "Knight" brings out a wild crowd on the dance floor!

Kelly McMonagle and Jillian Burke can't seem to pass up a photo opportunity!

Group photo! All the girls seem to be flocking to Eric Bringert, Nick Eddy and Kevin Jenkins!

Daniella Constantino and Jenn Conway break it down for the camera!

Having a great evening together are Ava Barone, Ashley Kimell, and Angelique Borque!

Everyone dances the "KNIGHT" away on the Spirit of Boston!

Tia Holt and Tommy Pollano take a break from all the excitement! 157

DANCING THE KNIGHTS AWAY

The 1998 P.E.P. Rally, "A Knight Throughout Time", was creative, exciting and entertaining for the entire school! A time machine took the North Andover football players throughout the decades to find the Masco kid who had their secret playbook. Eventually, the football players caught that Masco "crook" and got their playbook....then they took the keys to his beamer! The entertaining rally included excellent choreography to songs such as "Sing Sing Sing", "Rock Around the Clock", and "Girls Just Wanna Have Fun". Several songs were also performed live, by a few very talented NAHS students. There were many other people who put endless hours into this P.E.P. Rally and made it such a success: the choreographers, set designers, musicians, and stage crew just to name a few! A special thanks goes out to Miss Lumb; her enthusiasm, commitment and dedication helped to make "A Knight Throughout Time" such an entertaining success!

President Jaime Broussard and Vice-President Erin Riley can't seem to pass up a photo opportunity with Miss Lumb!

The football players huddle up in deep discussion on how to get their playbook back!

Barry Aruda catches the attention of all with his out of this world dance moves!

Is that Cindy Lauper performing in the N.A. P.E.P. Rally?!

Coach Humphreys addresses the crowd on the 1998 Football Season...

Boobie and Parker finally get that game-winning playbook back....GO KNIGHTS!

Priscilla Rivera performs a beautiful rendition of the Star Spangled Banner which everyone enjoyed!

HOMECOMING

The annual Homecoming Dance was held on Friday, November 20, 1998. This year's dance was a little different from years past. The captains of the fall sports, along with five other class couples, were choosen as candidates. As students entered the dance, they voted for King and Queen. This year, all candidates dressed casually because it was not a formal dance. The dance, however, was a big success and the Homecoming King and Queen were Tim Howlett and Allison Andiorio.

Back Row Left to Right: H. Poloian, K. Winne, A. Andiorio, T. Howlett, J. Conway, J. Broussard. Front Row Left to Right: B. Faye, J. Howard, G. Letourneau, M. Holland, J. Bruce, D. Saba.

And the winners are... Allison Andiorio and Tim Howlett!

Seniors Kristin, Meg, and Cristal take a break to pose for Sonny!

Pat Chadwick and Tiff Fowler are announced!

King Tim and Queen Sarah dance for the crowd.

This year's Valentine's Dance was held on Friday, February 12, 1999 and was a great start to our winter vacation week. Sponsored by the Junior Class, it was held in Caf A where a large crowd enjoyed the music of DJ, Todd Spadafore. Senior nominees were Tiffany Fowler, Marybeth McAloon, Sarah Reichard, Alicia Wood, Pat Chadwick, Dave DePrizio, Tim Howlett and Justin McKay. Freshmen, Heather Gendron and Ian Kurtz, Sophomores, Angela Caradang and John Goodwin, and Juniors, Melissa Wilkinson and Jon Eddy completed the Court. Tim Howlet and

Sarah Reichard were chosen

Dave and Alicia dance.

WINTER MUSICAL

This year North Andover High School performed one of the most difficult musicals vet, "Camelot." The cast put on an incredible show in a record breaking six weeks. David Murcko, Erica Marshall and Adrian Villalobos showed their incredible acting talents as King Arthur, Guinevere and Sir Lancelot. With the help of a professional team, this production became the most financially successful in North Andover High School history. The musical was directed by Peter Berkrot, and, with the help of tech director, Tom Eaton, music director, Kathy Troiano, and stage manager, Hope Ardizzone, it became a reality. The crew made this play happen. Kathleen Lyons worked as student director to fill Peter's shoes when he could not be present. Kelly Searls helped with the technical support for the show by filling the role as assistant stage manager. The performance took place on Febuary 4th, 5th, and 6th. Although script changes and costumes were still being made a mere 48 hours before opening night, everything worked out for the best. The cast and crew would like to acknowledge Hope Ardizzone for doing everything, Tom Walters for producing, Tom Eaton for making us look good, Peter Berkrot for making his dream a reality and Susan Townsend, who was one of us.

The cast gives a gang smile for the camera. Standing L to R: Soloman Berman, Matt Hanson, Jordan Bringert, Paul Melendy, Wendy Ramos, Adrian Villalobos, David Murcko, Erica Marshall, Nick Lo-Re, Carolyn Zaikowski, Raychel Sirois, Tyler Patterson, Chad, Jeff Houston. Middle RowL to R: Katie Levis, Julia Cook, Sarah Cowin, Jen Moriarty. Front Row L to R: Sarah Kim, Jessie Arista, Angela Carandang, Leah Beninato, Courtney Bartlett, Lauren Rossi, Stephanie Ramos, and Robyn Mudarri

Erica Marshall prays to St. Genevieve for help.

Courtney Bartlett gets into character as Horrid the dog.

Two stars on their way to broadway.

Wendy Ramos is deep in thought about King Arthur's future.

The priestesses pose for an enchanting picture.

Paul Melendy, Jenn Conway and Nick Lo-Re are cheerful before the first performance.

Erica Marshall and Adrian Villalobos starred as Guenevere and Lancelot.

ODE TO MY DAUGHTER

She is a skier, say the trail maps on the wall, And a scholar, say the books, in piles all. Must be busy, says the clutter. Don't trip and fall! And I miss her - she's almost grown, cries out the doll.

She is a dancer, declare the shoes with satin toes. She loves her wardrobe, remarks the closet, full of clothes. How she can find things among this stuff, Lord only knows, But she always admires flowers, remarks the rose.

She is an athlete, says the uniform upon the chair. The comb and brush shout out how much she loves her hair. She is an artist, announce the colors everywhere. And a poet, pronounce the phrases here and there.

She's full of fun, all the photos seem to shout. With many friends, the smiling faces leave no doubt. And she is wholesome, say the memories of Girl Scouts. And the Scripture shows that she's devout.

She loves her music, blabs the boombox beneath the star. The candy wrappers report her favorite bar. Her driver's license lets on she has a car. The college catalogs confess she's going far.

And she is patient, says the gum chain, very long She loves Dave Matthews and his Band, says every song. It's not been easy, announce the tissues, but she is strong. And the Cross communicates what's right and wrong. Her name is Kelly. She must be Irish, says the green. And everywhere around her room are magazines. She loves me more than all the rest, says Seventeen. And then the stack beside the bed says, See what I mean?

She is a linguist; - studies French and espanol, Declare the dictionaries and the texts. It is her goal. She is a writer, remark the pens, and on the whole, She is a reader, and into college she'll soon enroll.

She is a beauty, boasts the portrait in the frame. She loves her family, the other portraits do proclaim. A pretty smile sets her apart, and all the same, She is a worker. J and M's her claim to fame.

She loves to chat, claim the computer and the phone, A people person, she's very seldom all alone. Mint chocolate chip's her favorite ice cream in cup or cone. And her favorite kind of car's the one she owns.

She's very tall, telltale the jeans upon the bed. And she is blonde, blurts out the brush, with shades of red. She likes these hair combs, and uses ribbons for her head. It's also true she likes to talk, the teachers said.

Just like that shirt, her sparkling eyes are dreamy blues. She studies Newsweek, every week to get the news. And on her bureau are sweet colognes and some shampoos. And her name? It is proclaimed by Ruby Shoes.

Dear DOROTHY,

We love you very much. We are very proud of your accomplishments! May the Countenance of the Living God shine Its light upon you for the rest of your life and for eternity!! Mom, Dad and Tim

Closing Time

Closing Time
Open all the doors and let you out into the world
Closing time
Turn off all the lights on over every boy and every girl
Closing time
You don't have to go home but you can't stay here

I know who I want to take me home I know who I want to take me home I know who I want to take me home

Closing time
Time for you to go out to the place that you will be from
Closing time
This room won't be open til your brothers or your sisters come

So gather up your jackets move it to the exits I hope you have found a friend

Matt Holland, the newly crowned Mr. N. A. with his sponsor, Kim Vogel.

"Ahh...what a night!"

Pete Sison lets himself go during the swimsuit competition...woo hoo!!!

Who knew that NAHS teachers had so much talent??

YES! I love this stuff!

Pete Sison and Matt Holland aren't afraid to show their real personalities.

Members of Fosada Bridge, Jon Lunde and Dave Saba, do a great job entertaining the audience.

Woah! The bodacious Mike Demirdjian struts his stuff as he dances to Grease Lightning!!!

The contestants warm up the dance floor with the conga line!!!

Cool, confident and ready to perform, a few of the more "showy" contestants give the thumbs up to Sonny!

The group poses for one last picture before the big decision is announced.

Is that Richard Simmons performing at the 1999 Mr. North Andover contest?

Aww, what a cute couple! Jason Howard and Sue McClellan walk arm in arm down the runway.

Back by popular demand, Herr Graham performs his popular Mr. North Andover medley.

Dave Murcko and Jenn Conway gaze intently into the audience.
